

The Henry Gallery Presents

Emil Milan:
Midcentury Designer Craftsman

JUNE 9 – SEPTEMBER 26, 2014
PENN STATE GREAT VALLEY
30 E. SWEDSFORD RD, MALVERN, PA
SECOND FLOOR, CONFERENCE CENTER
M – F 9 AM - 5 PM

Chancellor Craig Edelbrock invites you to a Opening Reception
celebrating the life and work of

Emil Milan:
Midcentury Designer Craftsman

Monday June 9th
Reception 6 PM, Henry Gallery
Presentation 7 PM, Musser Auditorium

RSVP to Linda by phone: 610-648-3202
or email: ljb4@psu.edu

Milan's functional sculptures in wood combined sleek modern designs and organic shapes in quintessential midcentury designs. From 1961, he lived and worked in Thompson, PA, selling his works through retail outlets in the Northeast and teaching woodworking classes for Penn State Ag Extension.

This unique exhibit presents more than 80 of Milan's greatest works, including early and rare pieces that illustrate his remarkable vision, creativity, and evolving style.

Following the reception, hear a panel of Milan experts discuss the life and work of this lovable eccentric, innovative woodworker, and gifted artist and designer.